monwealth's attorney of the city, and in that office he made a most brilliant and envisible record. He was nominated and elected to the Constitutional Convention from Richmond, and was a leading mem-

from Richmond, and was a leading member of that body.

Captain Wise had a brave and honorable record as a Confederate solder and officer, and since the war he has always been a favorite with his people. He is a campaigner of fine ability, and has a way of getting next to the hearts of the voters. If he shall enter the race, as now seems almost certain, it would cause he surprise should he make a brilliant and vigorous stump canvass of the city.

DARLING TO SEE THE LAUNCHING

Assistant Secretary of the Navy Says He Wouldn't Miss It.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WASHINGTON, D. Virginia opened at the bat. Pollard was given his base on balls and made a clever rbal to second on the next ball pitch. He secred on Sterns's single, and the Virginia contingent became noisy. Mason hit to O'Brien, who threw to Metealf, retiring Sterns at second. Daniel and Joinson struck out, retiring the side. Cracraft made short work of Yale in her half of the first liming, pitching but three balls. Metealf went out on a fiv to Stucky; Pollard retired Huiskamp, and Bowman died from Mason to Johnson. No more scoring was done until the fifth liming. After Smith had been thrown out by Sterns to Johnson, Miller hit for three bases to left field and scored a moment later on Winslow's slasbing grounder down the third hase line. Robinson and Mackay struck out. In the sixth inning Metealf opened with a single. Sterns fumbled a hard hit consuder from Huiskamp's bat. O'Brien ngle. ## BROOKLYN VS.MONTREAL

Big Game of Ball at the Broad Street Park To-mor-

SPIDERS LOST TO LEHIGH

The Game Was Not an Inspiration and Lacked Ginger.

Brooklyn will reach the city to-merrow morning, and in the afternoon a game will be played at Broad Street Park with the Montreal team.

This will be the first real big game of the season. Montreal will show up well, as the boys are fast getting into where the Buffalo team of the Eastern League was defeated by a close score. Manager Atherton said last night his hoys are going to surprise the Breaklyn n.en. Another of his catchers named Kinsky has reached the city. He comes from Lockport.

The game to-morrow afternoon will begin at 3:30 o'clock.

LEHIGH WON OUT.

Richmond College Played a Game of Errors.

Little can be said of the game between Richmond College and Lehigh, at Broad Street Park, yesterday. Noither team quent, and slow playing was the rule, quent, and slow playing was the rule, quent, and slo wplaying was the rule for the was a good crowd of rooters ready for slight provocation, but the provocations were so infrequent that the contest became thresome before it was brought to googs at the sighth inplus by Unuite a close at the eighth inning by Umpire Richmond College team needs reorganizing. There were several players on the field yesferday who could not or would not get in the game. And besides the regulars there were two "ringers." Mefore and Bigble. Mefvey was not in condition, and Bibgle. Handy and Lankford could not have been expected to play the whole game.

There were eleven errors for Richmond and five for Lehigh. McEvey could not control the ball, gave away ten bases on balls, and hit one man, during the operation of which two men were forced ever the rubber. It was a case of walk around for a while.

On the other hand, the playing of Lehigh was not brilliant. Hitting was slow, and most of those registered were of the dinky hand.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 2.-Mr. WASHINGTON, D. C., April 2.—an.
Warren occupied the greater part of the day in the Senate with a speech on the Gibson bill to repeal most of the existing land laws. He took sharp issue with the contentions of Mr. Gibson, contending that the laws were beneficent and in the main honesity administered, and urging that there was no demand for repeal.
The postoffice appropriation bill was completely side-tracked for the day.
Mr. Mallory concluded his speech on the old age disability pension order of the Secretary of the Interior.
He said the order is ar usurpation of legislative authority and unjustified. He declared that there had not been any evidence to justify the original rulling that seventy-five years is evidence of total disability, nor any in the present case to show that sixty-two years is evidence of half disability.
The Senate adjourned until Monday. Warren occupied the greater part of the

EAST END SHOOTERS

Opening of the Season Resulted in a Good Attendance Yesterday.

ANDERSON WAS HIGH GUN

A Big Crowd Is Promised for the Easter Monday Shoot. Again Saturday.

ing on the East End Gun Club's grounds was fired yesterday at 4 o'clock. The records scored were remarkably good for amateurs and men out of practice, Dr. Mookjar and W. Price having never seen a clay target before and Lowry's second attempt.

There is more interest being manifested at the present time at the traps than ever before this early in "the game." Among the prizes for the keason are an L. C. Bmith shotgun, price $100, donated by the Peters Cartridge Company; a handsome loving cup, a $25 gold medal, donated by the Hunter Arms Company, besides individual temples.

loving cup, a $25 gold medal, donated by the Hunter Arma Company, besides individual trophies.

The following applications for membership were acted on favorably; 25, 11. Storq William Lowry and T. H. Pemberton, Mr. Storr is an expert shat and will very much strengthen the East End team,

There was a very interesting race at twenty-five targets between Mr. W. Mac-Lalland and J. Martin, the former winning by one bird after three ties had been shot off.

These friendly matches have a tendency to create interest in trap shooting, so J. A. Anderson and "Medico" are out with a challenge to shoot a race at fifty or one hundred clay targets with twe other trap shots of the city, for the price of shells and targets.

Mr. V. Hechler, the popular president of the club, had the misfortune of breaking his gun in the first event; consequently he withdrew.

BIG SHOOT TO-MORROW.

A large crowd will be at the Easter shoot to-morrow on the grounds of the Albemarie Gun Club, Shells for sale on the grounds.

The scores were as follows, twenty-five targets each in two events;

W. Muchelland, 37; J. W. Martin, 40;
